

Winter Weather Briefing

10:00 AM CST – Wed. Jan. 10, 2018

National Weather Service North Platte
800-603-3562

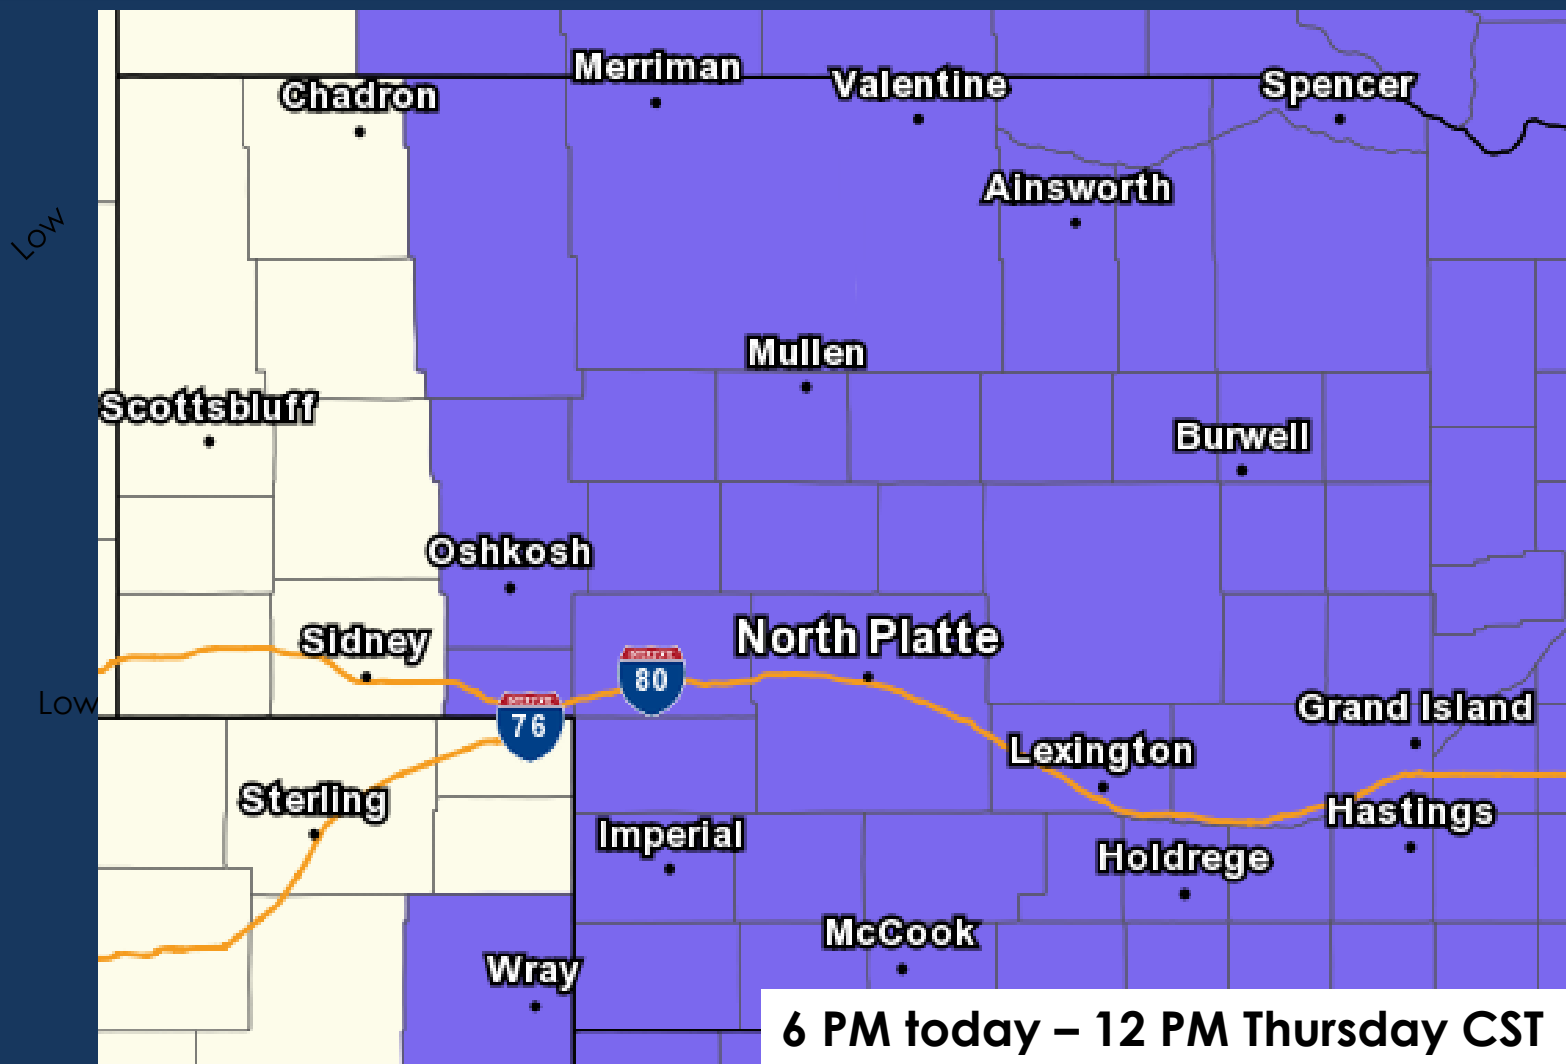

NWS Nebraska

Winter Weather Advisory

Please monitor weather.gov/NorthPlatte
for the latest watches, warnings and advisories

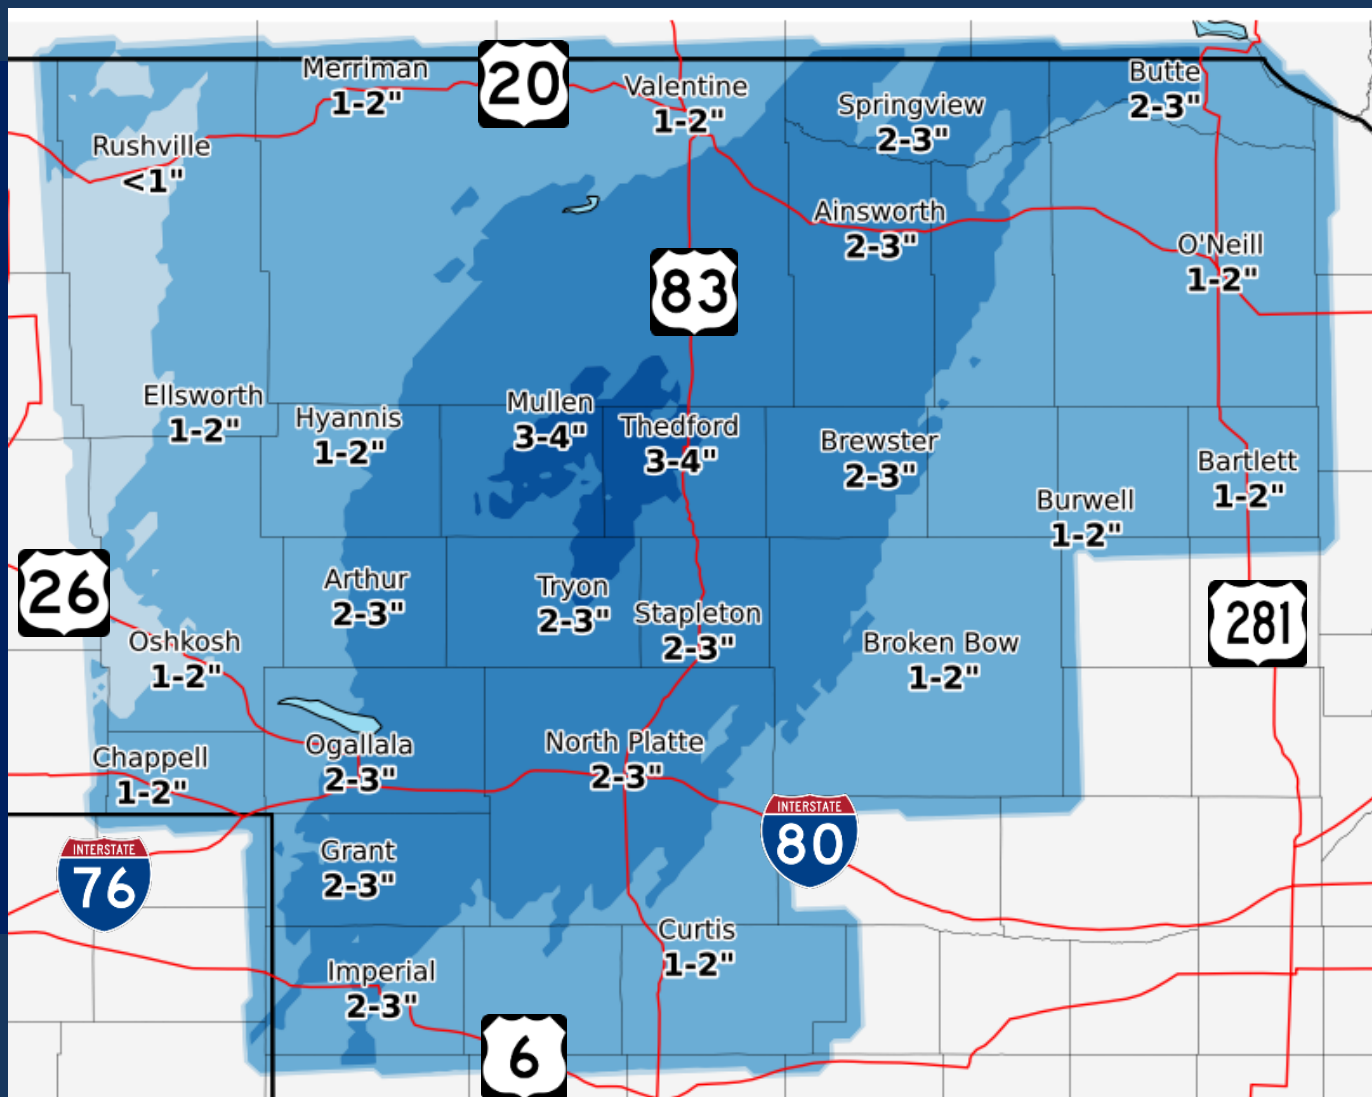

Forecast Snowfall

Heaviest snow:
7 PM tonight –
1 AM tomorrow

Central Neb (Broken Bow –
O'Neill & east):
10 PM – 4 AM

1"+/hr rates possible

Will lead to blowing snow & reduced visibilities

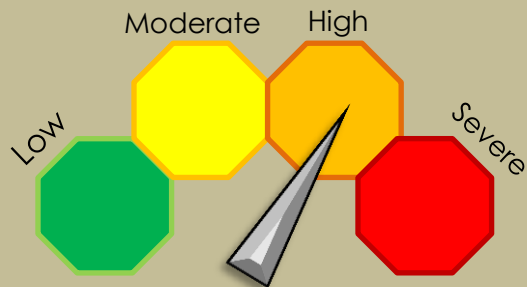

Other Weather Concerns

- Wet surfaces freezing this evening
 - Afternoon rain, then temperatures drop rapidly
 - Timing of rain → snow changeover:
 - Pine Ridge area 4-6 PM MST
 - Hyannis – O'Neill & north 5-7 PM CST
 - SW Neb/I-80 & Hwy 2 corridors 7-9 PM CST
 - May include a brief period of sleet
- Very cold wind chills Thursday morning
 - As low as -15 for areas north of Hwy 2
 - Generally 0 to -10 south

Summary

Impact Severity

Confidence

Time of Greatest Impact

Travel: This evening – Thursday

Cold: Thursday morning

Main threats:

Snow & blowing snow = slick travel, reduced visibility

- This evening – Thu. morning

Wind chills below zero

- Thu. morning

Rain changing to snow & rapidly dropping temps = slick roads

- This evening

Questions?

Call us anytime at 800-603-3562
nws.northplatte@noaa.gov

Please monitor weather.gov/NorthPlatte
for the latest watches, warnings and advisories